Cigars

Cohiba Siglo VI

Often given as diplomatic gifts, the Cohiba brand gradually developed a "cult" status. It was first released commercially for sale to the public in 1982. The Cohiba Siglo VI has received some of the highest scores in the line from blind reviews including a 93 from Cigar Aficionado and a 90 from Blind Man's Puff.

Rs 2,600 €53

Partagas Serie D No 4

The best known of all Partagas is the Serie D No. 4, the robusto size that formed part of the legendary Partagas alphabet series that dates back to the 1930's. In 2005 a Piramide, the Partagas Serie P No. 2, was added to the range, which fast became a cigar of choice amongst lovers of full flavoured Habanos.

Rs 1,550 €32

Romeo Y Julieta No 1

An elegant cigar that oozes class, flavour and reputation. Named after William Shakespeare's tragic lovers, the origins of R&J as a cigar brand date back to 1875.

Rs 960 €20

Romeo Y Julieta No 2

The Romeo Y Julieta (RyJ) Cuban cigar brand was officially first registered in 1873, which explains its copious history. One of the most noticeable things about RyJ is the name itself, named after nothing other than the famous piece by William Shakespeare.

Rs 860 €18

Romeo Y Julieta No 3

Tubed Cigar. Named after William Shakespeare's tragic lovers, the origins of R&J as a cigar brand date back to 1875. Since his visit to Havana in 1946, his name has been commemorated on a band and used to describe the marque's most famous size - 7 inches x 47 - the Churchill.

Rs 800 €16

H. Upmann Magnum 46

Upmann brand is among the oldest in the cigar industry, established back in 1844 by banker Herman Upmann in Havana. The Magnum 46 is one of the most popular cigars in the H. Upmann line. This cigar measures 5.6 inches long with a 46 ring gauge and is designed to offer a long, relaxing smoke.

Rs 1,700 €35

Montecristo Petit Edmundo

The name originates from 'The Count of Montecristo' by Alexander Dumas. The Edmundo range was named after Edmund Dantes the hero of the legendary novel. This was the favourite book to be read by the cigar rollers in the factory when it was founded in 1935.

Rs 1,400 €29

Montecristo Petit Tubos

It forms the benchmark for many Cuban Cigar lovers against which all other brands are judged. The name comes from the hero of Alexandre Dumas' famous novel "The Count of Montecristo", which was a firm favourite when read to the cigar rollers at the factory where it was founded in 1935.

Rs 1,400 €29

Cigarillos

Davidoff demitasse

Zino Davidoff was born to make great cigars. Davidoff was born in 1906, the son of a cigar merchant in Kiev, Ukraine, then part of Russia. The Davidoff family blended tobaccos mostly from Asia and sold cigars and cigarettes before moving when Zino was five to Geneva, Switzerland.

Rs 300 €6

Neos cappuccino

The Neos Selection Cappuccino is a fairly mild cigar, with a nice smooth and milky cappuccino flavour which is perfect for a little morning smoke or even better, an after dinner smoke. The cigarillo is well constructed, the burn was even giving off small chunks of light gray ash.

Rs 400 €8

Neos vanilla

The Neos feelings are produced from a blend of Burley and Virginia which have been infused with an aromatic vanilla flavour before being finished with the highly sort after Java Besuki wrapper which adds even more flavour and character to these cracking miniature cigars.
